Abstract

The research aims to shed light on the Armenian issue and its impact on Turkish-US relations 1980 - 1991, it has been the subject of a clear impact on overall international relations and Turkish relations-US especially, as the Turkish government opposes the efforts that have been made in the US Congress to adopt any decision to recognize the existence of "Armenian massacres", which reflected negatively on Turkish relations - the US in the period in question, and had been a factor contributed to the tension in relations between the two countries, especially after the approval of the Foreign Affairs Committee in the US House of Representatives on a draft resolution is hereby what he suffered the Armenian massacres during the war World II in 1915 as a genocide, Turkey bears the legal and moral responsibility, which it has implications and effects are clear on the relations between the two countries in 1980-1991.
