

Introduction To English Literature  Stage :First  Lecture 2		Instructor :Dr. Mugdad
---	---	--------------------------------------

Why Do We Read And Study Literature?

Literature allows us to interpret our own life and emotions and find ways to relate to the story so we in turn can reflect. It is also a form of entertainment and allows people to use their imagination to visualize the story within their own mind.

Why is it important to study literature?

Literature allows a person to step back in time and learn about life on Earth from the ones who walked before us. We can gather a better understanding of culture and have a greater appreciation of them. We learn through the ways history is recorded, in the forms of manuscripts and through speech itself.

What is the purpose of literature?

The literary purpose is used to entertain and to give aesthetic pleasure. The focus of the literary purpose is on the words themselves and on a conscious and deliberate arrangement of the words to produce a pleasing or enriching effect. A writer often expresses a worldview when using the literary purpose.

Why literature is important as part of humans life?

As an educative source, literature plays a significant part in human life. Literature works with direct or implied moral. ... Literature influences us and makes us understand the every walk of life. Narratives, in particular, inspire empathy and give people a new perspective on their lives and the lives of others.

What is the benefit of literature to you as a student?

When students study Literature, they learn to appreciate words and their power. They travel to other realms and times through the texts they read. They understand about their own culture and others'. They learn to empathize with characters, to feel their joys and pain.

What is literature in your own words?

Literature is a group of works of art made up of words. Most are written, but some are passed on by word of mouth. Literature usually means works of poetry, theater or narrative that are especially well written. There are many different kinds of literature, such as poetry, plays, or novels.

What literature means to me?

Literature is our journey into the past and allows us to keep great traditions and works of art alive in the present. It helps us understand where we come from, how we evolved, guides us towards the future, and adds meaning to our often chaotic, fantastically tremendous lives.

What is literary reading?

Literary reading is topic of discussion where you question your development theorists for understanding the reality of society. In addition, for a better use of using ancient texts, since some teachers that develop in the student the idea that literature is not part of the modern world, making no avail the your study.

Why literature is considered as the story of man?

The reason why it is considered as the story of man is because everything that happened, happens, and will happen in our society are recorded since it shows the development, knowledge, wisdom and progress of Man in this world.