

Alzheimer's disease Diagnosis

Unfortunately, getting an Alzheimer's disease diagnosis is not simple. Your doctor can't check for the disease by doing a quick blood test. That's because signs of Alzheimer's disease do not appear in your blood. Instead, Alzheimer's disease is the result of a problem inside your brain. The only way to be 100% certain a person suffers from Alzheimer's disease is to examine samples of brain tissue. This can only be done during an autopsy, after a person has died.

7. Media text: The hypocrisy of western liberals is breathtaking: they publicly supported democracy, and now, when the people revolt against the tyrants on behalf of secular freedom and justice, not on behalf of religion, they are all deeply concerned. Why concern, why not joy that freedom is given a chance? Today, more than ever, Mao Zedong's old motto is pertinent: 'There is great chaos under heaven – the situation is excellent.' Where, then, should Mubarak go? Here, the answer is also clear: to the Hague. If there is a leader who deserves to sit there, it is him.
